

BY-LAWS OF THE
EL PASO COUNTY REPUBLICAN PARTY

Adopted on June 29, 2024

BY-LAWS OF THE
EL PASO COUNTY REPUBLICAN PARTY

ARTICLE I Name

Section 1. The name of the organization shall be the El Paso County Republican Party. The County Executive Committee is the governing organization of the El Paso County Republican Party, this committee is hereinafter referred to as the CEC.

ARTICLE II
ORGANIZATIONAL PURPOSE

Section 1. The El Paso County Republican Party CEC, also referred to as EPGOP, represents our community, of individuals, families, and businesses, and seeks to unite El Pasoans, through a constitutional and conservative approach, in order to provide candidates to win elections and realize our party's goals.

The purposes of the CEC shall be:

1. To act as the governing body of the EPGOP and to exercise those powers and fulfill those duties and responsibilities conferred upon it by county, state or federal statutes, as well as Republican Party of Texas rules.
2. To establish general policy for the EPGOP.
3. To be responsible for the general supervision and management of the EPGOP.
4. To foster and encourage growth in the EPGOP by promoting the principles articulated in platforms, planks, and legislative priorities and by electing Republican officeholders.
5. To establish a process for volunteers to work in functions, tasks, goals, committees, and all pertinent jobs necessary to meet the mission, vision and goals of the EPGOP.

ARTICLE III RESPONSIBILITIES

Section 1. Responsibilities of the CEC are:

1. Observe all laws of the State of Texas and these United States in fulfilling these Bylaws. It is also agreed that all decisions will be bound by the Texas Election Code and the Rules of the Republican Party of Texas (hereinafter referred to as RPT) when applicable;

2. Establish the platform and general policy of the EPGOP, subject to the direction of the biennial County and State Conventions;
3. Represent the Republican Party at City, County, State, and National levels by:
  - a. The use of all Communications' media to articulate the Party's platform
  - b. Supporting and promoting the Party's candidates
  - c. Working together with conservative clubs and associations, to present a unified voice of conservative values throughout El Paso County.
4. All members of the CEC, except the County Chair, are expected to participate in at least two committees. One committee being the Precinct Development Committee, and another committee of their choosing as presented in the Organizational Chart of the EPGOP. The member shall petition to the committee chair his/her inclusion in the committee and the committee chair will make a determination if the member is accepted.
5. Represent the stated principles, virtues, values, and beliefs of the EPGOP at all times;
6. Cooperate in carrying out programs initiated by the RPT, including but not limited to:
  - a. conducting a Republican Primary in as many election precincts within the county as practicable and holding a Republican Primary at minimum 50% of the precincts in each County Commissioners precinct in the county;
  - b. organizing coordinated efforts within each precinct preceding each general election to publicize and support the Party's candidates;
7. Ensure Precinct Chairs and Republican Candidates adhere to the Texas State Election Code of Ethics;
8. Provide an opportunity for participation in EPGOP activities to all who subscribe to and participate in the beliefs, ethics, and principles advocated by the Republican Party;
9. Prepare the Party's Strategic Game Plan, approve an annual budget, and adopt changes to the Bylaws whenever appropriate and/or needed.
10. The CEC must approve contractual obligations for the Party as outlined in Article VI under responsibilities of the County Chair.

Section 2. Endorsements:

1. The EPGOP CEC as a body shall not endorse any candidate appearing in a contested race on the Republican Primary, Primary Runoff or Special Election ballot.
2. The CEC may endorse or oppose any candidate(s) appearing on any non-partisan ballot, provided there is a simple majority vote achieved with a major quorum present and proper notice being given ahead of the meeting of the intent to consider the question.
3. Notwithstanding, individual Precinct Chairs may support candidates of their choice.

4. The CEC may vote in accordance with RPT Rule 44 whether or not to endorse an incumbent Republican candidate.

ARTICLE IV RULES

Section 1. The CEC may adopt additional rules for the operation of the Party.

Section 2. Rules may be adopted by a majority vote of the CEC at any meeting with a minor quorum present.

Section 3. The rules adopted by this political party must be consistent with State law, the Texas Election Code (hereinafter TEC), and the rules adopted by the RPT.

ARTICLE V MEMBERS

Section 1. The members of the El Paso County Republican Party are the Precinct Chairs of each election precinct and the County Chairman, in accordance with TEC Section 171.

Section 2. The CEC shall be composed of the County Chair, and the Precinct Chair of the respective election precincts in the county. The County Chair and the Precinct Chair of the respective election precincts in the county shall be the only voting members of the CEC. {TEC 171.022}

Section 3. To qualify to hold the office of Precinct Chair or County Chair, a candidate must be a qualified voter residing within the bounds of the entity represented and, during the voting year in which primary elections are held, must have voted in the Republican Primary. {TEC 171.231}

Section 4. The term of office shall be for two (2) years commencing on the twentieth (20th) day after the Primary Runoff Election day as provided for in the appropriate section(s) of the Texas Election Code.

Section 5. Any vacancy in the office of County Chair or Precinct Chair shall be filled by the CEC in accordance with Texas Election Code.

Section 6. If any member of the CEC misses four (4) consecutive meetings that member may be removed for abandonment of office. A resolution passed by the CEC instructing the Chairman to notify the Precinct Chair, via certified mail, of their failure to attend meetings. The Precinct Chair has seven (7) days to respond in writing. The Chair and/or remaining CEC members may then ask for the member's resignation. {TEC 171.029}

ARTICLE VI OFFICERS

Section 1. The Chairman shall appoint the Secretary and Treasurer upon assuming office; neither of these two positions should go vacant for more than 30 days.

Section 2. The Chairman shall appoint the Vice Chair(s), Parliamentarian, Elections Administrator, and additional officers as necessary, with the CEC's approval/ratification.

Section 3. Officer terms shall be concurrent with that of the CEC, except that in the event of a vacancy in the office of County Chair, appointed officers shall serve only until election of a new County Chair.

Section 4. All officers and Committee Chairs serve at the pleasure of the Chair.
